FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Live Like a Local at Talking Rock Ranch in Prescott, Arizona
Stay & Play Promotion Returns with a Two-Night Stay, Golf, and Lunch for $499

PRESCOTT, Ariz. (April 13, 2011) – Talking Rock Ranch, a 3,600-acre Prescott golf community, is bringing back its Stay & Play package for the summer and fall. The special includes a two-night stay in a luxury Ranch Cottage, as well as a round of golf and lunch for up to four people, for just $499.

“The Stay & Play is a great opportunity for people to see what it would be like to live as a Talking Rock resident,” said Jim Jones, director of sales. “Our guests have direct access to our resident amenities like the award-winning Talking Rock Golf Club and The Ranch House restaurant.”

Stay & Play guests enjoy accommodations in a fully furnished, 2,000-square-foot Ranch Cottage with stunning golf course and countryside views. Besides golf on the Jay Morrish-designed championship course and a meal at The Ranch House, guests also are encouraged to take advantage of other Talking Rock amenities like miles of hiking, biking and jogging trails, state-of-the-art fitness center, regulation lap pool, and additional dining and lounging options. Should guests decide that they just don’t want the Talking Rock experience to end, there’s a diverse portfolio of Prescott custom homesites ranging from one-half to five acres.

The Stay and Play package is available on a limited first-come, first-served basis from May through October 2011. Welcome orientation is required. For more information, visit www.TalkingRockRanch.com or call (877) 922-4440 to make reservations.
